

Reserved Rights

In the case where there is any force majeure or other necessities that prevents the auction from proceeding normally under the auction rules, the NTC reserves the right to change the format, procedure, methodology and rules of the auction, as well as to cease, suspend or cancel the auction.